why shi•ra

Our treatments are offered by highly experienced, intuitive local women therapists who truly listen to the body. Rather than following a fixed routine, they adapt each treatment to what feels needed in the moment, always tailored to your preferred pressure.

At shi•ra we believe a massage is an invitation to slow down, soften, and reconnect with yourself.

For the body and mind to fully settle, there needs to be space to slow down and arrive. This is why our treatments begin at 60 minutes, creating the opportunity for a deeper and more restorative experience.
